MARKET REPORT
War diversions boost ship refuelling at Mauritius port

The island nation of Mauritius has become an increasingly popular refuelling stop for commercial cargo vessels avoiding the Middle East due to the Iran war. Bunker calls at Port Louis Harbour in the Indian Ocean surged to 294 vessels in March, a 42% increase from 207 the previous month before the conflict, according to the Mauritius Ports Authority (MPA). The amount of fuel the ships loaded jumped to 109 708 tonnes from 69 680 tonnes during the same period. Shipping routes are adjusting not only to security risks, but to shifts in demand for oil, gas, and other products due to the disruption of flows from the Middle East.

HEADLINE CPI: The CPI calculates the cost to purchase a fixed basket of goods as a way of determining how much inflation is occurring in the broad economy. The CPI uses a base year and indexes current year prices based on the base year's values.

CORE CPI: The headline figure is not adjusted for seasonality or for the often volatile elements of food and energy prices, which are removed in the Core CPI.
