MARKET REPORT
Gold steadies as traders weigh next round of US-Iran peace talks

Gold steadied, as traders weighed prospects for a negotiated settlement to the war in Iran that's disrupted global energy supplies and heightened inflation risks. Bullion was near $4 830 an ounce in early trading, having lost 0.2% in the previous session. US Vice President JD Vance is heading to Pakistan for the next round of talks, while Iran is also sending a delegation after saying earlier that it was hesitant to participate, according to people familiar with the plans. US President Donald Trump said a two-week ceasefire is due to expire on "Wednesday evening Washington time."

HEADLINE CPI: The CPI calculates the cost to purchase a fixed basket of goods as a way of determining how much inflation is occurring in the broad economy. The CPI uses a base year and indexes current year prices based on the base year's values.

CORE CPI: The headline figure is not adjusted for seasonality or for the often volatile elements of food and energy prices, which are removed in the Core CPI.
